Petersbourg, Dec. 17. Laſt Sunday Morning Felt Marſhal Munich arrived here. His Excellency immediately waited on her Czariſh Majeſty, who received him very graciouſly.

Vienna, Jan. 4, N. S. On Wedneſday laſt the Count de Fuenclara had Audiences of their Imperial Majeſties, and notified to them the Marriage concluded between the King of the two two Sicilies and the eldeſt Princeſs of Poland; and it is now publickly declared. Count Fuenclara is to go himſelf to Dreſden to demand the Princeſs in Form. It is ſaid that ſhe will ſet out in the Month of March, and take the Road of Lintz and Inſpruck. The King of Poland is to have her conducted and defrayed to the Frontiers of Italy, where ſhe is to be received and defrayed in the Name of the King her future Spouſe. The Empreſs Dowager continues to mend every Day. All the Imperial Family, as well as the Great Duke of Tuſcany, have viſited her during her Sickneſs.

Berlin, Jan. 11, N. S. On Tueſday laſt the King of Pruſſia dined at General Ginkel's, the Dutch Miniſter here: The Day after was performed at the Caſtle, in the Preſence of their Pruſſian Majeſties, and of ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction who were invited on that Occaſion, the Ceremony of the Marriage between M. Arnheim and the young Counteſs of Schulenburg, one of the Queen's Maids of Honour, and Daughter of General Count Schulenburg; and on Thurſday laſt his Pruſſian Majeſty removed from hence to Potzdam, whither the Queen is alſo to go on Wedneſday next: And the Court will continue there, as it uſually does every Year, till the Time of the General Reviews.

Hambourg, Jan. 14, N. S. Major General Loſs, who was formerly in the Swediſh Service, will ſucceed the late General Albedyl, in his Place of Commandant of this City. We have certain Advices from Copenhagen, that the King of Denmark will come to Altena towards the latter End of April, and remain the beſt Part of next Summer in this Neighbourhood.

Whitehall, January 13, 1737-8.

Whereas a threatning Letter was ſent on Sunday the 1ſt Inſtant, to the Wife of Thomas Kemble, of Tewkesbury, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Glouceſter, ordering her to lay Money in a certain Place, or elſe her Houſe ſhould be burnt, and ſhe and her Husband murdered: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in writing and ſending the ſaid Letter, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he ſhe or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, I Thomas Lord Viſcount Gage, do hereby promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders. GAGE.

Whitehall, January 10, 1737.

Whereas Charles Kilpin, of Hardinſtone, in the County of Northampton, has humbly repreſented to the King, that on Saturday the 17th Day of December laſt paſt, he, on his Return from Northampton to Hardinſtone, the Place of his Abode, between the Hours of Seven and Eight at Night, was ſet upon, aſſaulted and robbed by ſeveral Perſons who were unknown to him, ſome of whom, by the Advantage of the Night, came behind him the ſaid Charles Kilpin, and with ſome Weapon the very firſt Blow ſtruck him to the Ground, and by repeated Blows cut him in ſo dangerous a Condition, that, together with the great Effuſion of Blood that iſſued from the Wounds, he was for many Days, in the Opinion of the Surgeons who attended, and dreſſed his Wounds, in the utmoſt Danger of his Life, having loſt the entire Uſe and Faculty of all his Senſes: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perpetrators of ſo horrid a Fact, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as they or any one of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof, HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement, Bartholomew Clarke, Eſq; Merchant, dwelling upon Garlick Hill, in London, does hereby promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders. Barth. Clarke.

Whitehall, January 9, 1737-8.

Whereas on the Eleventh Day of October laſt, about Ten o' Clock at Night, a Barn full of Corn, conſiſting of Eighteen Bays of Building, and a Stable, both in the Poſſeſſion of Thomas Hanſon, of Bradfield, in the County of Berks, were wilfully ſet on Fire by Perſons unknown, and burnt to the Ground: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concern'd in this heinous Crime, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to ſuch Diſcovery, William Thompſon, Eſq; the Landlord of the ſaid Barn and Stable and Farm, to which the ſame do belong, doth hereby promiſe, that whoever ſhall make ſuch Diſcovery, ſhall on ſuch Conviction receive from him the Sum of Twenty Guineas. William Thompſon.

Whitehall, January 6. 1737.

Whereas by an Inquiſition taken at Fontmel Magna, in the County of Dorſet, on the 18th Day of December laſt paſt, before one of the Coroners of the ſaid County, it has been found, That in the Night between Thurſday and Friday the 15th and 16th Days of the ſaid Month of December, as John Tothevill was going from his Houſe in Fontmel Magna aforeſaid, to Weſt Lodge in the Pariſh of Iwerne Minſter, in the ſaid County, he was aſſaulted by a Perſon or Perſons unknown, who, with a large Stick, or ſome other weighty Weapon or Weapons, ſtruck him on the Head ſeveral Blows, whereby his Scull was fractured acroſs the Crown of his Head, from Ear to Ear, to the Length of ten Inches, and upwards, of which he languiſhed till Friday the 16th Day of the ſaid Month of December, about Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, and then he thereof died; and that the ſaid Perſon or Perſons him the ſaid John Tothevill did wilfully and maliciouſly kill and murder: His Majeſty, for the better Diſcovery of the Perſons concern'd in the ſaid Murder, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Perſon who actually committed the ſame) who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as they or any one of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, Major Jonathan Driver, dwelling in Queen-Square, Weſtminſter, does hereby promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders. Jona. Driver.

Whitehall,

Whitehall, January 3, 1737-8.

Whereas Mr. Richard Warre, of Piggotts in the County of Bucks, received a Letter on Friday the 30th of December last past, about Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, threatning to take away his Life, and burn his Houſe, Barns, and Recks, if he did not lay the Sum of Fifty Pounds at the Root of an Oak Tree near his Dwelling-houſe that very Night. His Majeſty for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice, the Perſons concerned in ſo heinous a Crime, is pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement to ſuch Diſcovery, I the ſaid Richard Warre do hereby promiſe, that whoever ſhall diſcover the Perſon or Perſons concerned in Writing the ſaid Letter, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, ſhall have a Reward of Fifty Pounds on ſuch Conviction.

Ri. Warre.

Stamp Office, Lincoln's Inn, Jan. 10, 1737.

Whereas by two ſeveral Acts of Parliament of the 10th of Queen Anne, and the 11th of his late Majeſty, there is made payable to his Majeſty for every Sheet of Paper on which any Journal, Mercury, or other News Paper ſhall be printed, One Penny, and for every Half Sheet thereof, an Halfpenny Sterling, under the Penalty of 10 l. for any Perſon to print, ſell, utter, or expoſe to Sale, any ſuch News Paper, before the Paper whereon the ſame ſhall be printed, ſhall appear to be ſtamped. And whereas the Commiſſioners of the Stamp Duties have lately proſecuted and convicted ſeveral Offenders againſt the ſaid Acts, and levied the ſaid Penalty on ſeveral of them, and have commenced ſeveral Proſecutions againſt others. And whereas the ſaid Commiſſioners have received Information, that the ſaid fraudulent Practice is ſtill carried on in ſeveral Parts of the Kingdom, of printing and uttering News Papers unſtamped; That no one may pretend Ignorance herein, the ſaid Commiſſioners have thought fit to give this Notice, and that they will for the future proſecute with the utmoſt Severity all ſuch as ſhall print, or expoſe to Sale any News Papers, contrary to the Directions of the ſaid Acts.
